

Ever thought of hiring a seasoned ex-CISO as an advisor / mentor to the CIO or CISO?

Our 'seasoned professionals' implement short term fixes and solutions whilst planning for long term sustainable change in the security of your business

We bring in seasoned, battle-hardened, highly successful individuals, for a short period of time

We ensure knowledge transfer and make ourselves redundant in as short a time as is feasible

OUR HOURS ARE YOUR YEARS

Are you, the CIO, worried about your security function?

Are you, the CISO, worried about your ability to get business buy-in to your strategy?

You need to make the business more cyber-resilient

Bring in a successful, deeply experienced CISO

Bridge the 'gap' between the business and the security function

Bridge the 'gap' between the CIO and the CISO

Help the CISO talk in language the business will understand
